

Mood Mugs

No matter which side of bed you get out of in the morning, there's a Mood Mug to suit you.

These beautifully designed hand made, insulated porcelain mugs each have a simple facial expression to reflect your mood.

Not a morning person? The Monstrously Moody mug will show everyone that after snoozing your alarm 10 times and dragging yourself out of bed, you're in no mood for a 'chat' at the breakfast table.

The Happy as Larry mug is perfect for when you wake up with a spring in your step and there's nothing better than reflecting on how good life is over a steaming hot brew.

The Seriously Sleepy mug is perfect for when you're a bleary eyed, sleepy head. Ideal for that early morning coffee to give you that boost needed to wake up, or a bedtime hot chocolate to send you off to the land of nod

The cleverly designed mugs have double wall insulation to ensure that your beverage is kept hot but your hands kept cool, eliminating the need for a handle and creating more cupboard space.
